POLICY STATEMENT

It is the responsibility of National University of Health Sciences (NUHS) that all persons serving in an administrative capacity serve at the pleasure of the President or his/her designee.

Examples of such administrative appointments include, but are not limited to the following: Chair Persons, Deans, Assistant Deans, and Vice Presidents.

Persons serving in any administrative position may be removed at any time from the administrative appointment by the President or his/her designee with or without cause.

If an emolument is involved and a person is removed from an administrative position, the regular payments of the emolument shall cease and the University shall have no obligation to pay any unpaid balance following such discontinuance.
