

ACUPUNCTURE AND MEMORY

Principal Investigator: Jason Bussell, MSOM
Faculty Sponsor: Hui Yan Cai, M.D., Ph.D.

This randomized control trial endeavors to examine the relationship between acupuncture, anxiety and memory in healthy adults. It is hypothesized the acupuncture treatment will reduce state-level anxiety in subjects more than subjects who do not receive acupuncture and subsequently will perform better on the AOSPAN test for working memory.

Funding: Internal