

INTEGRATIVE HEALTHCARE RESEARCH: BENEFITS AND CHALLENGES OF INTEGRATION

Principal Investigator: Gregory D. Cramer, D.C., Ph.D.

This survey asks administrators of Research Departments (Deans, Vice Presidents, Directors) at chiropractic institutions in North America to describe what (if any) integration occurs between chiropractic research programs and investigators at other CAM or traditional institutions. The survey will provide information about the benefits and challenges of integrative healthcare. (

Funding: Internal